Jesus’s parables about the nature world are very mystical. They remind us that the planting of the Holy Spirit in someone’s heart, their growing more and more filled with love, and their being drawn, through death, into the kingdom of the saints is entirely due to God’s secret action in the soul, just as He makes seeds sprout unseen in the soil and become part of a rich harvest. It is thus a mystery why some seem to receive God’s love so readily, and others seem to endure constant struggles. The writings of the great saints show us that, since our baptism, it is more often than not that we have sown weeds and strewn stones in what should be fertile soil; and that we cannot make progress until these have been pulled out. Very few of us, those saints included, are ‘rich soil’ from start to finish! Jesus’s words in this passage show us that the worst thing we can do is to ‘shut our ears and eyes’ to the state of our own little patch of soil. When I ask the Holy Spirit to help me look at my heart, I see many stones: challenges I’m scared to stand up to, to let the Lord take care of, which ultimately prevent me from fully following Him. I see many weeds too – bad habits or pleasures that I can’t give up – those patches of life where I say “I will follow the Gospel, but not if it means changing my lifestyle here or here”; I also have concerns that sap all my energy before I have even had a chance to stop and think: “Does God want me to devote all my time and attention to this?” It is always time to let the Holy Spirit stop and eradicate these stones and weeds! We just need courage to start, and to make resolutions. Today, what concrete steps will I make to clear the soil, and turn back to the Lord? Holy Spirit, send your grace as sunshine and rain, and let the Word sown in us bear fruit in plenty!

ORDINATIONS

Ordinations to the Priesthood and Diaconate Congratulations to Tom Kent who is to be ordained priest on Saturday (11th July); and to Simon South and Dominic Dring who will be ordained Deacons on Tuesday 14th July at 7.00pm - both those celebrations are at Arundel Cathedral and can be viewed on the YouTube channel: [https://

You may see a young French seminarian with us for this next month: Vincent Avot is now able to travel to the UK as the quarantine regulations have ended. He is improving his English, in the same way as Alexandre Guillaud 2 years ago. Alexandre will be ordained priest in Lucon on Sunday 26th July (& Fr Raglan will take part). Please spare a prayer for them.

CONTACT ADDRESSES APPEAL

One thing that would really help as we move (cautiously) into the weeks ahead would be to get our contact addresses up to date. That is certainly the case if you have moved house or changed your email. But also I suggested in April, that if everyone asked 4 fellow-parishioners if they have given their email/address etc to the office - and confirmed that they are happy for us to have them according to Data Protection rules - we would achieve that in no time. And we are still in a situation where we can't gather quite so freely as before, and having those addresses is a vital way of communicating.

We have been trying to contact many of our Readers, Welcomers and Eucharistic Ministers etc but there are some of you whom we do not have contact details for. If you are a Eucharistic Minister, Readers or welcome and have not heard from Maura Phipps (who is now doing the rotas) can you please e mail the office and it will be forwarded to her.

GIFT AID ENVELOPES

Please give your box number to a steward on your way into mass and they will have it ready for you to collect at the exit after mass.

THANK YOU TO OUR STEWARDING VOLUNTEERS

You have enabled us to open for Mass after all this time! Some of our regular welcomers have asked if this means they are redundant? No, it is just for as long as the government guidelines require it (at present we may not give out hymn books or newsletters).

We are still unable to do the same at St Agnes' and St Gregory's, until we have enough volunteers to make up teams for this. It does mean coming half an hour before Mass, seeing that people know the procedures to keep everyone safe, and cleaning afterwards. The more people who can give some of their time, the more we can open for Mass, and it will not bear too much on anyone. Please leave a message with the Parish Office.

All Masses are currently at Our Lady of Ransom.

Mass will also be livestreamed on our YouTube channel where marked [L/S] All those attending Mass MUST bring and wear a face covering and maintain 1m social distancing from other households.

As seating is limited, you are advised to be in good time.

Where marked [O], overflow seating will be available in the Parish Centre, where a second priest, if available, will offer a separate Mass – or else Mass from the main church will be simultaneously broadcasted there on the screens.

Please see Mass Schedule on the back page of this newsletter.....

RIP: Please pray for the repose of the souls of Yvette Daniel and Ralph Grandi. Our sympathy and prayers are with their families.
Due to the restrictions, funerals are being limited to family members only and therefore taking place outside the Masses open to the parish.
