THE PARISH OF OUR LADY OF RANSOM St GREGORY AND St AGNES

Fr Raglan Hay-Will, Fr Gerard Hatton Fr Neil Chatfield, Deacon Paul Scholey

It is impossible not to feel sorry for the blind man whose sight was restored by Jesus. How happy he must have been to be able to see again, to rejoice that through this miracle he had almost been given a new life. We can hope that no longer did he have to beg, but he could start fending for himself and not rely on charity.

Instead of being allowed a time of euphoria, however, he is hauled before the bigwigs, the Pharisees, and asked to explain himself. He is accused of having been a sinner all his lifepresumably their belief was that since he was afflicted with blindness from birth he must have done something very wicked to deserve such punishment! Not much logic there, but prejudice and reason never go hand in hand. So the poor man is driven away. What is so striking about this story, and about the story last week of the encounter Jesus had with the woman at the well, is the simplicity of the response both the blind man and the Samaritan woman have to the presence of Jesus. They don't require lengthy discussions, and great persuasion. They just seem to know that they are in the presence of someone very special. Jesus is equally simple, and it has to be said, very gentle in the reassurance he gives them. Last week he said 'I am he', in this story he said 'you are looking at him'. The lesson is clear: faith can be so simple, so uncomplicated. Let us pray that we that we can learn from this, and just believe.

THIS WEEKEND after 10.30am Mass, bacon buttie morning and cake sale to help send the Phipps teenagers to Lourdes as helpers. £1.50 bacon buttie, tea/coffee. Any donations of cakes much appreciated.

There is a Pastoral Letter from the Bishop this weekend.
