

Are you curious ?

Are you searching answers? Are you intrigued by what Catholicism really is?

Have you ever wondered why people are still becoming Catholics in a society that largely discounts the need for religion?

Well here is an invitation to YOU to come and join others just like you.

Our world is indisputably in crisis: socio-cultural, geo-political problems, wars, extremes of climate and of course the pandemic. It would be easy to succumb spiritually and emotionally. But is there another dimension? Where and how does a living faith in the person of Jesus Christ, Son of God, fit into all that surrounds us? How does Catholicism balance its history and tradition, its liturgy, music, rituals and teaching with the big questions that concern us today while caring for the future of our planet and its people? Can our faith give us support and the tools to fulfil our vocations to be people of integrity and love?

Do come and join us in evenings of lively discourse and debate on these and many other topics with people all seeking understanding too.
